

2025-DR-002615-O

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR ORANGE COUNTY, FLORIDA

Case #: 2025-DR-002615-O
Division: 41

Madison Calnan,
Petitioner,

and

Maxwell Calnan,
Respondent,

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO DETERMINE TRIAL COURT RECORDS
CONFIDENTIAL PURSUANT TO FLORIDA RULE OF JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION 2.420(C)(9)

THIS MATTER is before the Court on the Motion to Determine Trial Court Records Confidential filed by the Respondent pursuant to rule 2.420(c)(9), Florida Rule of Judicial Administration. The Respondent seeks an order sealing the following information relative to this case:

The entire court file and the progress docket, including docket entries, party names, and case type, and to remove the case from public access, including from the Clerk of Court's online docket system. However, the case number shall remain public.

There are no affected non-parties where notification of said motion was required.

This motion was not contested and a hearing was not conducted. Both Petitioner and Respondent are in agreement with the language in said Order.

Having considered the arguments of the parties, legal authority, and otherwise being fully advised, The Court GRANTS the motion as follows:

1. Confidentiality of the entire court file and progress docket is required to protect the following interest:

Avoiding substantial injury to innocent third parties, specifically the parties' child, and to avoid substantial injury to a party by the disclosure of matters protected by a common law or privacy right not generally inherent in this type of proceeding, specifically: the disclosure of sensitive personal information and allegations contained within a dismissed civil injunction petition, including case type and affected parties, which are not adjudicated findings, and could result in reputational harm, stigmatization, and undue damage to both parties' professional and personal lives.

2. The Court further finds that no less restrictive measure is available to protect this/these interest(s), and that the degree, duration and manner of confidentiality ordered herein are no broader than necessary to protect the interest(s).

Wherefore, it is ORDERED that:

The Clerk of the Circuit Court is hereby directed to seal immediately the following materials related to this matter and to keep such materials from public access:

The entire court file and the progress docket, including docket entries, party names and case type. The progress docket shall not be available on any public information system. However, the case number shall remain public.

It is further ORDERED that any materials sealed pursuant to this Order shall be conditionally disclosed upon the entry of a further order by this Court finding that such opening is necessary for purposes of judicial or governmental accountability or First Amendment rights.

It is further ORDERED that any materials sealed pursuant to this Order may otherwise be disclosed only as follows:

- A. to any judge of this Circuit for case-related reasons;
- B. to the Chief Judge or his or her designee;
- C. to adult parties or their attorneys of record; or
- D. by further order of the Court.

It is further ORDERED that, within 10 days of the date of this Order, the Clerk shall post a copy of this Order on the bulletin board of the Orange County Clerk's Office and the Clerk's website for a period of 30 days to provide public notice.

It is further ORDERED that the Clerk is hereby authorized to unseal any materials sealed pursuant to this Order for the purpose of filing, microfilming or imaging files, or transmitting a record to an appellate tribunal. The materials shall be resealed immediately upon completion of the filing.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers, at Orange County, Florida, on this 21 day of Aug, 2025
